Start the big holiday

With the end of the school year, the long -awaited period of children begins - the summer vacation. In order for this period to be unpleasant events, the police address parents and legal guardians a series of children's safety recommendations. call the unique emergency number 112.

If you go to crowded places (parks, shopping centers, events), permanently supervise children and set an accidental meeting point. wander. in the digital environment. Supervise. You! When you travel by bicycle, avoid crowded areas and main arteries with high traffic! Nationally congratulated all the students for the results obtained in the school year and wishes them an interesting, creative, active, full of emotions and positive experiences. And most importantly - a safe holiday!

May 30 2025